Re: Loren Solomon v. Allied Interstate LLC
Civil Action No. 12-cv-07940-CM

Dear Judge McMahon:

On November 16, 2012, this Honorable Court issued an order scheduling an Initial Pre-Trial Conference for Friday, December 21, 2012, beginning at 11:15 a.m.

Plaintiff requests a continuance of the Initial Pre-Trial Conference because he has not been able to make service of the Complaint on Defendant, Allied Interstate LLC. Specifically, on November 6, 2012, Plaintiff sent a copy of the Complaint, Notice of Lawsuit, and Waiver of Service of Summons to Defendant's principal place of business: 335 Madison Avenue, 27th Floor, New York, NY 10017. While the Complaint, Notice of Lawsuit, and Waiver of Service of Summons were received by Defendant on November 9, 2012; however, Defendant did not return an executed copy of the Waiver of Service of Summons. Thereafter, on December 10, 2012, Plaintiff retained a process server to make personal service of the Complaint and Notice of Lawsuit on Defendant. When the process server arrived at Defendant's principal place of business, he was denied access into the building by security, thereby preventing him from making personal service on Defendant.

The undersigned reached out to the law firm of Reed Smith, which has represented Defendant in other cases in the Southern District of New York to obtain an address to make personal service on Defendant. Yesterday, December 12, 2012, Reed Smith provided that information to the undersigned. Now, the undersigned has contacted a private process server to make service on Defendant at the address provided by Reed Smith.

Since service has not been made on Defendant, Plaintiff requests an adjournment of the conference so that he can make service of the Complaint on Defendant.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

CRAIG THOR KIMMEL
